1			Contract Duration: The contract shall be valid for a period of 06 (Six) years from the date of issue of first notification of award / Letter of Acceptance (LOA). However, vehicles shall be deployed for a period of 05 (Five) years on phase wise deployment as per operational need	Kindly confirm whether each vehicle deployed under the contract is required to operate for a full period of five (05) years from its respective date of deployment, irrespective of the overall contract duration of six (06) years. If this is not the case, please clarify the deployment timeline. Specifically: (1) Up to which year of the contract may IGL request vehicle deployment? For example, will deployment be limited to the first two years of the contract, or can IGL request a vehicle even in the fifth year of the contract term? (2) If deployment is requested in the later years, such as the fifth year, will the vehicle operate only for the remaining period i.e one year.	Tender Conditions prevail. Deployment of vehicles will be for a period of 05 years or till the validity of contract, whichever comes earlier.
2				Kindly confirm whether the successful bidder is permitted to deploy vehicles that are not registered in the bidder's name, such as vehicles taken on lease, hire, or through third-party attachment arrangements, while retaining full responsibility and accountability under the contract without any dilution of obligations.	Tender Conditions prevail The vehicles shall be registered in the name of the company or Proprietor / Partner / Director/ Lead member of consortium.
3			Power of Attorney to the bid signatory on Non-Judicial Stamp Paper / Board Resolution on Company Letterhead	As a proprietorship firm does not have a separate legal entity distinct from its proprietor, issuance of a Power of Attorney in such cases is generally not applicable when the proprietor himself/herself is signing the bid documents. In view of the above, kindly confirm whether submission of a Power of Attorney is still required for a proprietorship firm	Tender Conditions prevail Proprietor to provide self-declaration on its letter head
